Terms & Condition's

Confirmation and Deposits

A booking will be confirmed once these Terms and Conditions are signed and a deposit is paid within seven (7) days of receiving this information. If these Terms and Conditions are not signed, returned and the deposit paid within this specific timeframe, Jacobs Well Bayside Tavern reserves the right to cancel the booking.

The deposit is calculated at 25% of the estimated function cost. All deposits can be paid via cash, credit card or EFTPOS.

Final numbers, menu, beverage details and room set up are required fourteen (14) days prior to the function. The remaining function cost is also to be paid.

All bar tabs and any additional charges are to be settled at the conclusion of the function with a valid credit card to be held at the commencement of the function.

Additional Charges

All 18th, 21st birthday parties and other functions may incur a $300 charge for security, should management deem this necessary.

All public holidays will also incur a 15% surcharge to the total cost.

The client will be responsible for all damages that may occur pre, during and post function. Any damages will be at a cost to the client.

Cancellations

The client must advise Jacobs Well Bayside Tavern of their intention of cancellation in writing to receive a refund of any monies paid. This will need to be confirmed by the function manager. If you require your function to be cancelled please note the following conditions:

- Thirty (30) days or more = all monies refunded
- Between thirty (30) and fifteen (15) days = 25% of monies payed refunded
- Fourteen (14) or less days = No monies refunded

If the client is a "no show" on the day of the function, no monies will be refunded.

Function Areas and Access

The Dining Room can be sectioned off with dividers. Due to the size of this area management reserve the right to use dividers to reduce/minimise the size of the area at their discretion especially when numbers of the function have been reduced from the original booking.

The room hire allows the client to access the room prior the function, depending on other functions and service times. If the client requires prior access please see the function manager prior to the function.

Food & Drinks

In accordance with Queensland Liquor Act 1992, Jacobs Well Bayside Tavern is only authorised to serve and sell liquor on premise. All guests must adhere to these current laws. No outside liquor or beverages may be brought on premise pre, during or post function. All food or miscellaneous items cannot be brought on premise unless approved by the function manager prior to the function.

Due to seasonal changes and availability the menus and pricing may be subject to change. The client will be informed of these changes in writing and menus and cost will then be adjusted accordingly.

Goods and Services

Any outside items that the client may wish to be use during the function, must be approved by the function manager prior to the function. All items that are arranged by the client are their sole responsibility for the delivery, set up, transportation, security, loss or damage pre, during and post function.

If you would like to decorate your own function, please approve all decorations with the function manager prior to the function. No staples, nails, glue or tape is permitted on floor, walls, ceilings and furniture.

Any damage caused to the premises as a result of the client bringing in outside items when setting up, use of items and removal of items will be charged to the client at the costed quotation to repair the damage.

Dress Code

A dress code policy of smart casual attire applies and is to be followed by all guests throughout the course of the function. Failure to comply with this dress code will result in refusal of entry.

Code of Conduct

All patrons attending the function must act in an orderly manner pre, during and post function. In accordance with Jacobs Well Bayside Tavern's House Policy, we reserve the right to refuse entry or service to any patron at any stage of the function if showing signs of:

- Intoxication
- Under the influence of any illegal substance
- Aggressive or abusive behaviour

If any patron refuses to leave the premise they risk fines and expulsion from Jacobs Well Bayside Tavern. Management supports staff refusing service to any patron.

Minors

Jacobs Well Bayside Tavern requires notification of all minors attending the function. The client is to complete and return the Minor Agreement Form prior to the function. If minors are attending the function, they will be required to be supervised at all times by an adult or guardian throughout the Tavern. Minors will not be served at the bar. Anyone who is found obtaining alcoholic beverages for minors will be asked to leave the Jacobs Well Bayside Tavern immediately. Please see below for the Minor Agreement Form.
